rated from the Wesleyans in 1795. They have a chapel in Unett street, a plain brick building, and a small chapel in Oxford street.

THE PRIMITIVE METHODISTS have chapels in New John street west, Gooch street, and Nechell's green.

WESLEYAN ASSOCIATION have a chapel situated in Bath street.

THE WESLEYAN REFORMERS have erected commodious chapels within the last few years, in Moseley street, Branston street, Summer hill, Nechell's green, Legge street, and Balsall heath; besides which the society have eleven preaching rooms in different parts of the town.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Broad street, Islington, in connexion with the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of England, and in communion with the Free Church of Scotland, established their small place of worship in 1834, which, having become too small for the society, the first stone of the new church was laid, Monday, July 25th, 1848, by Charles Cowan, Esq., of Edinburgh. It is in the Italian style, from a plan by Mr. Bolham, of Birmingham. The church is lighted from the roof. The interior is plain, but neatly finished. Rev. John Robinson Mackenzie, D.D., is the pastor.

INDEPENDENTS. The chapel in Carr's lane is a large brick building, cemented, having an imposing front in the Grecian style; was erected in 1820, at a cost of £10,000, raised by subscription, and will seat 2000 persons. The congregation is under the pastoral care of the Rev. John A. James, and the Rev. R. W. Dale. In connexion with this chapel is the Palmer street chapel, a small brick building, erected in 1832, in St Andrew's parish, Bordesley.

GRAHAM STREET INDEPENDENT CHAPEL is a large handsome brick building, with stone facings, erected in 1844; will seat 1200 persons. Rev. Robert Hall, pastor.

INDEPENDENT CHAPEL, Legge street, a small neat stuccoed edifice, to accommodate 160 hearers, originally built by the Primitive Methodists. Rev. Peter Sibree, pastor.

TRINITY TABERNACLE, (Independent,) Parade, is a small brick building.

INDEPENDENT, (Boatmen's,) Tindal bridge, is a small place, and has no regular pastor. The Independents have a small chapel in Darwin street, under the pastoral care of the Rev. T. P. Buckingham. The Rev. Wm. Cuttle is the minister of Wheeler Street Chapel. There is also a small chapel in Little Barr street, Handsworth Union Chapel; the Rev. J. Hammond, pastor.

CALVINIST CHAPEL, a handsome structure in Frederick street, various preachers.

EBENEZER CHAPEL, Steelhouse lane, is a large commodious brick building, erected in 1818, by a Calvinist congregation. John Knox Stallybrass, minister.

BAPTIST CHAPELS.—Circus Chapel, Bradford street, is a large cemented brick building, formerly used as an amphitheatre; it was purchased of Mr. Joseph Sturge and William Lucy, by William Middlemore and Rev. Charles Hill Roe, for £1050, and converted into a chapel, at the expense of £1200; it is well fitted up in the interior, and will seat 800 persons, and was opened, October 24th, 1848, by Dr. Raffles, from Liverpool, and the Rev. John Adescoe, from London. Rev. J. Jenkyn Brown, pastor.

BAPTIST CHAPEL, Bond street, is a neat substantial building, established in 1785. Rev. C. New, the pastor. The Rev. Joseph Burton is minister of Heneage Street Chapel.

BAPTIST CHAPEL, Newhall street, is a neat Gothic edifice; Rev. A. G. O'Neill, pastor.

BAPTIST CHAPEL, Lombard street, is a substantial brick building, erected in 1786; will seat 600 persons. Rev. George Cheatle, pastor.

BAPTIST CHAPEL, Graham street, is a large neat brick cemented building, erected in 1820; has galleries all round, and will seat 2000 persons, under the pastoral care of the Rev. C. Vince, M.A.

BAPTIST CHAPEL, foot of Great King street, erected in 1848. No regular pastor.

BAPTIST CHAPEL, Cannon street; no regular pastor.